

Judge Dee in Global Literature

Dr Sabrina Hao

Notes from the convenor, Toby Davidson

This was our first in-person seminar since Feb 2020, a milestone for us all!

The configuration of the room means that the convenor has to switch the slides for the presenter, so every time Sabrina says 'Toby' that's a cue to change slides.

Please note that the recording cut out at the 51-minute mark, mid-way through the Q&A part. This was a battery issue with the recorder, my apologies for that.

The seminars for Semester 2 are being amended and will be sent to English staff and Masters students in due course. We look forward to MRes students returning to our live seminars next semester!
